“Creating Our New Normal” Reception & Panel Discussion

WED, JUNE 30, 6 pm
Complimentary Cocktails & Appetizers

From the owner, Chef Kim Vu, “My great hope is to bring value to the queer community through this panel discussion and reception. Whether it be personal insight, career advice, or emotional encouragement, first and foremost, this event is meant to add value to their life. I’m sure it will be insightful for those who aren’t queer, and hopefully it will help us become better allies to the queer community.”

In addition to featuring Michters, a woman-made whiskey by master distiller Pamela Heilmann, we’ll also be featuring La Gritona Tequila. Loosely translated as “The Screaming Woman”, this 100% blue agave spirit is distilled by Melly Barajas in a small distillery in Jalisco. Every step of production takes place under one roof and the facility is overseen by a small staff of local women that work each process. This tequila is not just small batch and craft-made, it’s woman-made start to finish.

There is no charge for the reception, but you must RSVP to:
